2017 PINOT NOIR SONOMA COUNTY

With a medium garnet color and aromas of bing cherry, this Sonoma County Pinot Noir is velvety smooth with ripe blackberry flavors. A splash of syrah adds to the mid-palate excitement, introducing hints of mocha and pepper. The result is an approachable red that can serve double-duty as not only a pleasing happy hour pour, but also a weeknight dinner table accoutrement.

VINIFICATION

The wine was fermented in stainless steel tanks, with multiple daily pump overs for color and flavor extraction. After fermentation, the wine was pressed to barrel for 10 months ageing.

VINEYARD LOCATION

This wine was produced from grapes grown on several vineyards in the Sonoma Coast appellation, with a good portion originating from Art Ibleto's "Bella Sonoma Vineyard" located at the intersection of Stony Point and the Gravenstein Highway.

VINTAGE CONDITIONS

Record setting rainfall was followed by a wide variety of weather conditions keeping growers busy. Extreme heat in early September accelerated ripening leading to a hectic harvest producing aromatic, condensed flavors with higher acidity.

COOPERAGE

10 months French oak.
